

FW: Immigration inquiry

If you do not answer, would I consider it a refusal ?

Because I am busy, when you do not answer this email within a week, I may well consider my application for refugee in Canada turned down.

You waste my time and ignore my emails and regard my pain easy. If this is true, you're just trash.

Hello,

After your reply about 20 days ago, I had no further proper answer as you noticed me.

Let me know whether I wait more or not. Your time and work is not more important than mine.

It is correct that I am not a Canadian not to deserve your service. Likewise you don't deserve to be arrogantly silent.

I mean I want to search another way than Canada if you refuse my application. No other meaning.

I anticipate your proper timely reply.

Subject: Immigration inquiry

Hello,

Can I apply for immigration as an exile ?

2 years ago, I was refused as a refugee into Schengen area in Zurich, Swiss. They explained why the application is turned down, but I didnt understand.

Attached is my registration at that time. If you request the information to the Swiss immigration at the airport, You'll know it.

I know this email can be rude for you, but you have to respect my struggle after several refusals in my serious condition.

Thanks,

Jeongseon Hong
